Reading this constitution with the Corporations Act

1.6 The replaceable rules set out in the Corporations Act do not apply to the company.

1.7 While the company is a registered charity, the ACNC Act and the Corporations Act override any clauses in this constitution which are inconsistent with those Acts.

1.8 If the company is not a registered charity (even if it remains a charity), the Corporations Act overrides any clause in this constitution which is inconsistent with that Act.

Interpretation

1.10 In this constitution:

- (c) the words ‘including’, ‘for example’, or similar expressions mean that there may be more inclusions or examples than those mentioned after that expression, and
- (d) reference to an Act includes every amendment, re-enactment, or replacement of that Act and any subordinate legislation made under that Act (such as regulations).

2 Charitable purposes and powers

Objects

2.1 The objects for which the company is established are to promote the prevention or control of mental health illnesses in people principally in Australia directly and indirectly through:

- (b) to sell, trade, lease, license, assign, novate, grant an interest in or over, or otherwise reasonably deal with any interest, facility, amenity or asset as is reasonable to further the objects and to ensure the continuance of the company and its commitment to these objects;
- (c) to invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may be permitted by law for the investment of trust funds;
- (d) to subscribe to or affiliate with any companies, institutions, societies or associations having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the company and which shall prohibit the distribution of their income and property among their members to an extent at least as great as that imposed upon the company under clause 18 of this Constitution;
- (e) to perform all such acts and things necessarily incidental, ancillary and conducive to the benefit, advancement and promotion for the purposes of promoting the prevention and control of mental health illnesses; and

- (f) to cooperate with, encourage and provide assistance to any charitable institution, charitable body or charitable fund having objects similar to the Objects of the company.

 - (a) the powers of an individual, and
 - (b) all the powers of a company limited by guarantee under the Corporations Act.

Not-for-profit

- 2.4 The company must not distribute any income or assets directly or indirectly to its members, except as provided in clause 2.5 and clauses 18.2 to 18.5.
- 2.5 Clause 2.4 does not stop the company from doing the following things, provided they are done in good faith:
 - (a) paying a member for goods or services they have provided or expenses they have properly incurred at fair and reasonable rates or rates more favourable to the company, or
 - (b) making a payment to a member in carrying out the company's charitable purpose(s).

Amending the constitution

- 2.6 Subject to clause 2.7, the members may amend this constitution by passing a special resolution.
- 2.7 The members must not pass a special resolution that amends this constitution if passing it causes the company to no longer be a charity.

3 Members

Membership and register of members

- 3.1 The members of the company are:
 - (a) initial members, and
 - (b) any other person that the directors allow to be a member, in accordance with this constitution.
- 3.2 The company must establish and maintain a register of members. The register of members must be kept by the secretary and must contain:
 - (a) for each current member:
 - i. name
 - ii. address
 - iii. any alternative address nominated by the member for the service of notices, and
 - iv. date the member was entered on to the register.
 - (b) for each person who stopped being a member in the last 7 years:
 - i. name
 - ii. address
 - iii. any alternative address nominated by the member for the service of notices, and
 - iv. dates the membership started and ended.
- 3.3 The company must give current members access to the register of members.

- 3.4 Information that is accessed from the register of members must only be used in a manner relevant to the interests or rights of members.

Who can be a member

- 3.5 A person who supports the purposes of the company is eligible to apply to be a member of the company under clause 3.7.
- 3.6 In this clause, 'person' means an individual or incorporated body.

How to apply to become a member

- 3.7 A person (as defined in clause 3.6) may apply to become a member of the company by writing to the secretary stating that they:
- (a) want to become a member
 - (b) support the purpose(s) of the company, and
 - (c) agree to comply with the company's constitution, including paying the guarantee under clause 1.4 if required.

Directors decide whether to approve membership

- 3.8 The directors must consider an application for membership within a reasonable time after the secretary receives the application.
- 3.9 If the directors approve an application, the secretary must as soon as possible:
- (a) enter the new member on the register of members, and
 - (b) write to the applicant to tell them that their application was approved, and the date that their membership started (see clause 3.12).
- 3.10 If the directors reject an application, the secretary must write to the applicant as soon as possible to tell them that their application has been rejected, but does not have to give reasons.
- 3.11 For the avoidance of doubt, the directors may approve an application even if the application does not state the matters listed in clauses 3.7(a), 3.7(b) or 3.7(c). In that case, by applying to be a member, the applicant agrees to those three matters.

When a person becomes a member

- 3.12 Other than initial members, an applicant will become a member when they are entered on the register of members.

When a person stops being a member

- 3.13 A person immediately stops being a member if they:
- (a) die

- 4.8 In accordance with this clause, the directors may resolve to warn, suspend or expel a member from the company if the directors consider that:
- (a) the member has breached this constitution, or
 - (b) the member's behaviour is causing, has caused, or is likely to cause harm to the company.
- 4.9 At least 14 days before the directors' meeting at which a resolution under clause 4.8 will be considered, the secretary must notify the member in writing:
- (a) that the directors are considering a resolution to warn, suspend or expel the member
 - (b) that this resolution will be considered at a directors' meeting and the date of that meeting

- 4.12 The directors cannot fine a member.
- 4.13 The secretary must give written notice to the member of the decision under clause 4.10 as soon as possible.
- 4.14 Disciplinary procedures must be completed as soon as reasonably practical.
- 4.15 There will be no liability for any loss or injury suffered by the member as a result of any decision made in good faith under this clause.

- (a) within 18 months after registration of the company, and

6 Members' resolutions and statements

Members' resolutions and statements

- 6.1 Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on a resolution may give:
- (a) written notice to the company of a resolution they propose to move at a general meeting (members' resolution), and/or

- (b) a written request to the company that the company give all of its members a statement about a proposed resolution or any other matter that may properly be considered at a general meeting (members' statement).
- 6.2 A notice of a members' resolution must set out the wording of the proposed resolution and be signed by the members proposing the resolution.
- 6.3 A request to distribute a members' statement must set out the statement to be distributed and be signed by the members making the request.
- 6.4 Separate copies of a document setting out the notice or request may be signed by members if the wording is the same in each copy.
- 6.5 The percentage of votes that members have (as described in clause 6.1) is to be worked out as at midnight before the request or notice is given to the company.
- 6.6 If the company has been given notice of a members' resolution under clause 6.1(a), the resolution must be considered at the next general meeting held more than two months after the notice is given.
- 6.7 This clause does not limit any other right that a member has to propose a resolution at a general meeting.

Company must give notice of proposed resolution or distribute statement

- 6.8 If the company has been given a notice or request under clause 6.1:
 - (a) in time to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members with a notice of meeting, it must do so at the company's cost, or
 - (b) too late to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members with a notice of meeting, then the members who proposed the resolution or made the request must pay the expenses reasonably incurred by the company in giving members notice of the proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement. However, at a general meeting, the members may pass a resolution that the company will pay these expenses.
- 6.9 The company does not need to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members if:
 - (a) it is more than 1 000 words long
 - (b) the directors consider it may be defamatory
 - (c) clause 6.8(b) applies, and the members who proposed the resolution or made the request have not paid the company enough money to cover the cost of sending the notice of the proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members, or
 - (d) in the case of a proposed members' resolution, the resolution does not relate to a matter that may be properly considered at a general meeting or is otherwise not a valid resolution able to be put to the members.

Circular resolutions of members

- 6.10 Subject to clause 6.12, the directors may put a resolution to the members to pass a resolution without a general meeting being held (a circular resolution).
- 6.11 The directors must notify the auditor (if any) as soon as possible that a circular resolution has or will be put to members, and set out the wording of the resolution.
- 6.12 Circular resolutions cannot be used:

- (a) for a resolution to remove an auditor, appoint a director or remove a director
 - (b) for passing a special resolution, or
 - (c) where the Corporations Act or this constitution requires a meeting to be held.
- 6.13 A circular resolution is passed if all the members entitled to vote on the resolution sign or agree to the circular resolution, in the manner set out in clause 6.14 or clause 6.15.
- 6.14 Members may sign:
- (a) a single document setting out the circular resolution and containing a statement that they agree to the resolution, or
 - (b) separate copies of that document, as long as the wording is the same in each copy.
- 6.15 The company may send a circular resolution by email to members and members may agree by sending a reply email to that effect, including the text of the resolution in their reply.

7 Voting at general meetings

How many votes a member has

- 7.1 Each member has one vote.

Challenge to member's right to vote

- 7.2 A member or the chairperson may only challenge a person's right to vote at a general meeting at that meeting.
- 7.3 If a challenge is made under clause 7.2, the chairperson must decide whether or not the person may vote. The chairperson's decision is final.

How voting is carried out

- 7.4 Voting must be conducted and decided by:
- (a) a show of hands
 - (b) a vote in writing, or
 - (c) another method chosen by the chairperson that is fair and reasonable in the circumstances.
- 7.5 Before a vote is taken, the chairperson must state whether any proxy votes have been received and, if so, how the proxy votes will be cast.
- 7.6 On a show of hands, the chairperson's decision is conclusive evidence of the result of the vote.
- 7.7 The chairperson and the meeting minutes do not need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against on a show of hands.

When and how a vote in writing must be held

- 7.8 A vote in writing may be demanded on any resolution instead of or after a vote by a show of hands by:
- (a) at least five members present
 - (b) members present with at least 5% of the votes that may be passed on the resolution on the vote in writing (worked out as at the midnight before the vote in writing is demanded), or
 - (c) the chairperson.

- 7.9 A vote in writing must be taken when and how the chairperson directs, unless clause 7.10 applies.
- 7.10 A vote in writing must be held immediately if it is demanded under clause 7.8:
 - (a) for the election of a chairperson under clause 5.32, or
 - (b) to decide whether to adjourn the meeting.
- 7.11 A demand for a vote in writing may be withdrawn.

Appointment of proxy

- 7.12 A member may appoint a proxy to attend and vote at a general meeting on their behalf.
- 7.13 A proxy does not need to be a member.
- 7.14 A proxy appointed to attend and vote for a member has the same rights as the member to:
 - (a) speak at the meeting
 - (b) vote in a vote in writing (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment), and
 - (c) join in to demand a vote in writing under clause 7.8.
- 7.15 An appointment of proxy (proxy form) must be signed by the member appointing the proxy and must contain:
 - (a) the member's name and address
 - (b) the company's name
 - (c) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy, and
 - (d) the meeting(s) at which the appointment may be used.
- 7.16 A proxy appointment may be standing (ongoing).
- 7.17 Proxy forms must be received by the company at the address stated in the notice under clause 5.17(d) or at the company's registered address at least 48 hours before a meeting.
- 7.18 A proxy does not have the authority to speak and vote for a member at a meeting while the member is at the meeting.
- 7.19 Unless the company receives written notice before the start or resumption of a general meeting at which a proxy votes, a vote cast by the proxy is valid even if, before the proxy votes, the appointing member:
 - (a) dies
 - (b) is mentally incapacitated
 - (c) revokes the proxy's appointment, or
 - (d) revokes the authority of a representative or agent who appointed the proxy.
- 7.20 A proxy appointment may specify the way the proxy must vote on a particular resolution.

Voting by proxy

- 7.21 A proxy is not entitled to vote on a show of hands (but this does not prevent a member appointed as a proxy from voting as a member on a show of hands).
- 7.22 When a vote in writing is held, a proxy:
 - (a) does not need to vote, unless the proxy appointment specifies the way they must vote
 - (b) if the way they must vote is specified on the proxy form, must vote that way, and

- (c) if the proxy is also a member or holds more than one proxy, may cast the votes held in different ways.

8 Directors

Number of directors

- 8.1 The company must have at least three and no more than nine directors.

Election and appointment of directors

- 8.2 The initial directors are the people who have agreed to act as directors and who are named as proposed directors in the application for registration of the company.
- 8.3 Apart from the initial directors and directors appointed under clause 8.6, the members may elect a director by a resolution passed in a general meeting.
- 8.4 Each of the directors must be appointed by a separate resolution, unless:
- (a) the members present have first passed a resolution that the appointments may be voted on together, and
 - (b) no votes were cast against that resolution.
- 8.5 A person is eligible for election as a director of the company if they:
